

Dear Commisioners,

Please vote to preserve diversity of ownership of media companies. As one whose first job was in radio in 1970, I've always felt the independence of the media, a free press as the constitution says, was a "sacred" right of our citizenship.

We have already gone too far in the consolodation of ownership among the media companies.

Sincerely,

Rob Sample